License Guide for Microsoft Teams

Introduction to Microsoft Teams License Guide

In August 2022, Microsoft announced changes to their Microsoft Teams Rooms licenses, to cater to a wide range of business sizes.

Their room licenses will now be offered in two tiers – 'Basic' and 'Pro'. Pro licenses will be charged at £30.20 per room, per month, while Teams Rooms basic will be offered for free to any customer who has purchased a certified MS Teams room device.

The key differences between basic and pro:

Microsoft Teams Basic License

Microsoft Teams Rooms Basic provides core meeting experiences to organisations and includes scheduling, joining meetings, content sharing, and collaborative white boarding, as well as basic security and management capabilities out-of-the-box. This license can be used to license a single certified Teams Rooms system. You can assign up to 25 Microsoft Teams Rooms basic licenses to Teams Rooms systems in your organisation. Any additional licenses need to be Pro.

Basic licenses can be used to license Teams Rooms Systems only, not panels.

Microsoft Teams Pro License

Microsoft Teams Rooms Pro delivers enhanced in-room meeting experiences like intelligent audio and video, front row and large galleries, and dual screen support.

The Teams Rooms Pro license also provides advanced management features like remote device management, conditional access policies, and detailed device analytics.
